

Halekulani, Waikiki, Hawaii

Halekulani, originally a private beachfront estate, has been accommodating discriminating travelers to Waikiki Beach since 1917. The hotel's tradition of gracious hospitality prevails today in the same beachfront setting, an oasis of luxury, impeccable service and fine cuisine which is world renowned. Recognized for its excellence in service, Halekulani is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World, Preferred Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, and Okura Hotels & Resorts.

Panoramic views of the Pacific, the famous Diamond Head and lush courtyards create a perfect setting of understated elegance on the beach at Waikiki. Gracious Hawaiian hospitality mesh with the tradition of personalized and impeccable Halekulani service.

Serene understated elegance is very much the theme in all guest rooms and suites. Only the finest materials were used in the design of the spacious rooms and each tiled bathroom is pure luxury. Guest rooms feature large lanais averaging 100 square feet. Rooms are categorized by view: Garden View, Courtyard View, Partial Ocean View, Ocean View, Prime Ocean Front and Diamond Head Ocean Front. The majority of rooms offer an ocean view.

Lush palms define the borders of the signature Orchid pool comprised of 1.2 million pieces of glass mosaic tiles. Guests have a wide choice of water activities including surfboard rentals, snorkeling lessons, and sailing. A large 46-by-82 foot pool overlooks Waikiki Beach. Enjoy the spacious deck with lounge chairs, backrests, pool towels and pool attendants. The concierge can arrange activities such as outrigger canoe rides, surfing, snorkeling, deep-sea fishing, and windsurfing.

