ADVICE FOR CUSTOMERS TRAVELLING ON SINGAPORE AIRLINES FLIGHTS FROM THE UNITED KINGDOM

Singapore Airlines is advising customers on flights from the United Kingdom that special, stringent measures have been introduced for the carriage of hand baggage on all flights from the UK, until further notice.

Accordingly, all customers on Singapore Airlines flights from London Heathrow (three flights per day) and Manchester (daily flight) from 10 August 2006 until further notice, must observe the following restrictions on items taken beyond the airport security search points.

In a single (ideally transparent) plastic carrier bag, only the following items are permitted:

- Pocket-size wallets and pocket-size purses plus contents (for example money, credit cards, identity cards etc (not handbags)
- Travel documents essential for the journey (for example passports and travel tickets)
- Prescription medicines and medical items sufficient and essential for the flight (eg, diabetic kit), except in liquid form unless verified as authentic
- Spectacles and sunglasses, without cases
- Contact lens holders, without bottles of solution
- For those travelling with an infant: baby food, milk (the contents of each bottle must be tasted by the accompanying passenger) and sanitary items sufficient and essential for the flight (nappies, wipes, creams and nappy disposal bags)
- Female sanitary items sufficient and essential for the flight, if unboxed (eg tampons, pads, towels and wipes)
- Tissues (unboxed) and/or handkerchiefs
- Keys (but no electrical key fobs). All passengers must be hand searched, and their footwear and all the items they are carrying must be X-ray screened.

Nothing may be carried in pockets.

No liquids of any sort will be permitted.

Pushchairs and walking aids must be X-ray screened, and only airport-provided wheelchairs may pass through the screening point.

Singapore Airlines has been told to expect significant delays at airports.

We apologise in advance if flights are delayed because of the implementation of these new requirements, which follow a security advice from the UK authorities.

Customers are asked to allow plenty of extra time for check-in, and to ensure that, other than the few permitted items listed above, all their belongings are placed in their hold baggage and checked in.

This advice will be updated as information is provided by the UK authorities and posted on the Singapore Airlines website www.singaporeair.com.
